

Clarification On audit of books of accounts

Since I am running my business in proprietorship, I am not required to get my books of account audited under any Law or Act except Income Tax or GST, if my turnover exceed specified limits. In any of the last three financial year, my turnover does not exceed prescribed limits hence I am not required to get my books of account audited by chartered accountant.